To Whom It May Concern,

Enlisting the professional services of Property Search 4U is the best investment we have ever made.

Fred Haggar and his staff's knowledge of the property market was extremely impressive. As was their commitment to helping us find the perfect house. Prior to enlisting PS4U services, we had spent several months looking for the right home with no success. We decided to employ the services of a professional buyer's agent. We had no idea how little we knew about the Sydney Real Estate market until we were looked after by Mr Haggar.

Fred Haggar's personalised service, sound advice, extensive research, and positive demeanour made the whole experience far less stressful than if we had endured it alone. We felt in safe hands throughout the entire process and felt incredibly supported with the many big decisions we had to make. Mr Haggar's attention to detail was exemplary. We could not have achieved the massive amount of research and knowledge, and ultimately, the purchase of our first home without him.

Mr Haggar's performance at the auction was simply outstanding. He secured the property for us, whilst saving us a considerable amount of money with his strategic bidding.

Fred Haggar and his staff worked tirelessly to help us acquire our first home, and we have no hesitation in recommending Fred Haggar and Property Search 4U.

Yours truly,

Marise Watson and David Vella
